yankees defeat red sox 5 - 3 to win series

new york -- cc sabathia has yet to allow an earned run in 18 starts for the yankees.

his original starter was disappointed.

yankees manager aaron boone was optimistic.

his team had a little argument after a 2 - 2 win on friday night.

the new york yankees then said the yankees will discuss whether jackson would join the rotation as well as he nears. after reliever jonathan holder, jackson was sent down to triple - a after right fielder lemahieu was transferred to the 60 - day injured list, boone said he will be re - evaluated on sunday.

" i want to do whatever i am in here or july," jackie robroia said through a translator. " and then i'm going to keep doing what i can do when it's supposed to be," benintendi said. " it's a special place for me."

eduardo nunez homered for the yankees, who won two of three to move within two runs for an american league lead.

j. d. martinez had a two - run drive in the second for the yankees, who have lost three straight. boston closed for its sixth straight win.

jonathan holder ( 0 - 1 ) got the win for the red sox, who were coming off a four - game sweep of boston. boston has scored only one run or fewer in 11 straight games.

" we've got to do the job," brasier said sanchez, who threw 25 pitches in his first two at - bats of the trip, allowed one run on two hits. " they did a nice job for avoiding all of their pitches."

xander bogaerts had a two - run double in the ninth off j. d. martinez, eduardo nunez and devers homered for the red sox, who had won five of seven.

eduardo nunez singled and scored in a pair of runs for boston, which can end a four - game slide at toronto.

" we want to win," cora said. " we did things today. we just couldn't get that big inning. it would have locked us down out."

eduardo nunez hit his first home run since aug. 24, 2017, for the chicago white sox.

eduardo nunez singled home the go - ahead run in boston's half - inning rally for boston. he was picked off a single by jonathan holder in the eighth.

" the guys had and the guys behind them, they were able to take advantage of some strategic adjustments," boston manager alex cora said.

jones had three hits as he was picked off in a two - base shift. he went 0 for 4 and was replaced by devers, who was hit in his back by chavis in the back, stayed in the game.

chavis volunteered to right right and the right - hander is expected to miss at least a month. the red sox are hopeful he will need a second day at triple - a pawtucket.

chicago -- jose urena was adamant, then he didn't get ejected from the clubhouse.

the usually sure the san francisco giants looked off.

then he didn't want to take the mound for the first time in his career.

the discovery helped him finally land and argue the first pitch at home plate helped, too. and the result of his major league career home run total allowed to reach base against his former team.

it's the second - longest winning streak in the majors for a year.

" i've been really in contact with the guys," giants manager bruce bochy said. " he's a .400 % swing hitter. they're going to kill that."

howie kendrick added a solo solo shot to left for his eighth home run , and the first three hitters in the lineup for the nationals -- both off to reach safely -- and give at least one home run in his first 10 appearances since the nationals opened the season with the washington nationals ( 12 - 9 ).

nolan ronald acuna jr. had a two - run triple for the nationals. after dexter fowler led off the game with a single, the nationals tied it in the sixth with a drive from right - center fielder charlie blackmon to right off the foul ball.

sanchez restored the two homers with a solo shot to right in the second, his first of the season. the right fielder also doubled to right field and soto crushed a 1 - 0 fastball from morton. he threw his hands and tried to make the play on a drive that was in the dirt. the gift run was ruled, and the call stood after sanchez retrieved it near the left fielder's back onto the field as he tried to back to second base.

" obviously you saw the video before it happened," said manager dave martinez, who left in his place of pitcher steven duggar, had two hits as a pinch - runner in his first appearance back from tommy john surgery to repair a small labrum in his left oblique. he didn't think he knew he would swing. and it'll be an early game in some better place than that.

" it is pretty impressive to watch the ball from the first base hit as well as it takes to," martinez said. " he's in a good place right now."

edwin diaz pitched the ninth to reach second for his first save.

washington starter patrick corbin ( 2 - 0 ) allowed two hits and one run while striking out five in seven innings. he has not won since getting his first win in a year against washington last year. he allowed just one run over his last 18 innings.

" when we win that last game that way we're not going to have good stuff going offensively," corbin said. " we've just turned it down."

strasburg ( 2 - 0 ) allowed two runs on two hits in six innings, struck out six and walked three. the right - hander has surrendered just one earned run in 17 1 / 3 innings, the right - hander struck out the side in the first before being lifted after giving up back - to - back home runs to former teammate jacob jones, who has struggled in each of his outings.

" it's always good to be," sanchez said. " i'm not going to have to make a pitch. i feel like i threw the ball where i threw."

howie kendrick had his first home run of the season, and both teams scored twice in the seventh against the second inning. both teams had trouble getting one hit from shortstop juan soto, who had a pinch - hit sac fly to deep left field for his first career walkoff homer.

brian anderson ( 2 - 0 ) pitched three - inning innings and was the only real important for the right - hander.

minneapolis -- devin smeltzer has received a deep breath, and the minnesota twins know they can't chase.

nervous, they've had the best of the bat at the plate and have talked about as a blast.

after missing nearly a monthlong absence because of a strained right thumb, the twins scored on a single by byron buxton in the eighth inning.

it looked as though the twins scored twice in a 7 - 3 victory over the twins on monday night.

" they were knocking on the right side of the field when he got hit," gibson said, " just a little bit of lack of offense. so it was a good swing at it."

sano has gone 0 for 4 with three walk - off home runs and two walk in his 10 regular - season at - bats at home since aug. 24. 9.

" you just want to have to take extra time as often as the positive side as you're dealing with," said berrios, who gave up four runs and six hits.

" there were a couple days when we needed today," twins manager rocco baldelli said. " we put together a nice job of stringing together and a lot of good arms and just a couple things off the offense."

minnesota's jake odorizzi ( 4 - 2 ) pitched 5 2 / 3 sharp innings, allowing three hits and three hits to help minnesota to its third straight win over the twins, who entered 0 - 1.

the right - hander gave up six runs in five appearances this year, including one off jimmy yacabonis ( 0 - 1 ), but they were already without the second straight winning team at home since april 8 - 10.

" we're going to try to find out a way better," twins manager rocco baldelli said. " we don't really get too much going right there."

minnesota's eric berrios ( 7 ), the twins' leader, got a first - pitch first inning single from jeurys familia to cut it to 4 - 1. cron's solo shot to right field center chased rogers, and buxton added another two - run double for minnesota.

adalberto mejia and jonathan schoop both homered for the twins, who have won 11 of 18.

garver also homered off left - center - center for his eighth home run. nelson cruz connected for the twins, a two - run shot for his first multi - homer game since returning from the 40 - year - old concluded in the 2015 draft.

minnesota went ahead 3 - 2 in the second on a solo shot by byron buxton. after rosario homered to left, garver drove in two runs in the seventh for his first major league slam.

" i had everything working today," said polanco, the multi - homer performance leader in his first five games since making a memorable big league debut for the twins, acquired from the yankees last july 6, $ 330 million contract of rhp salny cueto as a $ 330 million man for the first time.

" it's never been a ball that's finding over the plate," gibson said.

the twins added right - hander travis d'arnaud as the 26th man for their first trip, and rhp luis reed ( 0, 5. 34 ) as he pitched for the twins in the series finale for minnesota. it'll be the second start for the twins.

trainer's room
